

Seehaus e.V. is an organization in Germany, one of our partner of Building Bridges. In the context of Building Bridges operates Seehaus e.V. a victim counseling:

Aid, Counsel, Company

The experience of an offense could shake a life hard. Syncope, anger and fear are feelings which influence the person concerned. Often things like uneasiness, nightmare or sleeplessness come along. The victim assistance Seehaus e.V. help and encourage the person concerned and their members.

We support them in processing the experience. We show possibilities to react in an adequate way and develop a strategy to go further. Our desire is that persons concerned and their members are finding a way back to a common life.

Offer of assistance for person concerned and members

- We listen to you
- We support you to come to rest after an offense
- We accompany you after, before and while a proceeding and with the refurbishment of the outcome, even when it is long ago
- We offer counseling and pastoral care
- We inform, provide advice and support you in reference to legal issues and different frontline services
- We advise you in financial and practical questions which are linked to the offense
- We inform you about how police and judicial procedures take place
- We communicate as needed contact member to other experts like doctors, psychologists, therapists and lawyer